THE SCORE

GO TO THE ZOO

The Brookmarket Zoo was a world-class institution, visited by locals and travelers alike. In the late 20th century, it was an iconic zoo, admired and beloved. Its animals were content, its visitors happy, its staff respected. Chairman of the Zoo Board, D.E. Hitchcock IV, welcomed people to the grounds with beaming pride, as his father had for a generation before.

Now, D.E. Hitchcock is dead. The community takes the zoo for granted. Attendance is down. The zoo withers.

The zoo keepers grow desperate. Money is tight. Other, more successful zoos in other cities sniff around the place, looking to take away animals and staff. A proposed expansion project might drum up new interest in the zoo... if the city approves the new zoning plan. But rumors persist that a multiplex is offering more money to buy up a chunk of the zoo land, displacing animals and staff forever.

Are these the last days of the Brookmarket Zoo? Or can someone with powerful ambition change things for the better?

...IN THE ZOO

NEEDS...

1 TO GET IN

- ...with the crew of the coolest exhibit in the zoo.
- ◻ ...to the Rain Forest Adventure after hours.
- ◻ ...on the trip that's being planned.
- ◻ ...with the looker on the rival exhibit staff.
- ◻ ...before it's too late to save the zoo.
- ◻ ...to the Nocturnal House before anyone finds what's in there.

2 TO GET OUT

- ...of the country with your prize.
- ◻ ...from under your debt to the zoo.
- ◻ ...from under the zoo's considerable debts.
- ◻ ...with your pride intact.
- ◻ ...before anyone else gets wise.
- ◻ ...once your favorite animal is secure.

3 TO GET AWAY

- ...with cutting corners.
- ◻ ...to a foreign country, where you can do real good.
- ◻ ...just for a few days, maybe a week. Or even a month.
- ◻ ...with your power play, in the long run.
- ◻ ...by taking your show on tour.
- ◻ ...to join another, better zoo.

4 TO GET RESPECT

- ...from the community, for a job well done.
- ◻◻ ...from the board, despite the mistakes.
- ◻◻◻ ...from the International Zoological Society, who will understand.
- ◻◻◻◻ ...from the one who left.
- ◻◻◻◻◻ ...from D.E. Hitchcock IV, even though he's dead.
- ◻◻◻◻◻◻ ...from an animal, lest it turn on you.

5 TO GET EVEN

- ...with the board, for what they did.
- ◻◻ ...with the city, after all these years.
- ◻◻◻ ...with an animal, whether it understands or not.
- ◻◻◻◻ ...with a zoo keeper, who should've known better.
- ◻◻◻◻◻ ...with those monsters who let poor Buttons die.
- ◻◻◻◻◻◻ ...in a way that the whole city will appreciate.

6 TO GET CONTROL

- ...over the exhibit.
- ◻◻ ...over yourself, for everyone's sake.
- ◻◻◻ ...before everyone finds out you don't have it.
- ◻◻◻◻ ...for just one day.
- ◻◻◻◻◻ ...over an animal that refuses to be tamed.
- ◻◻◻◻◻◻ ...over the whole zoo, at last.
