THE SCORE

"CALL ME SAL"

Salman bin Nasser al Saud is a Saudi prince, he's twenty-four years old, and he is heir to one of the biggest fortunes on the planet.

Sal's pride and joy is his penthouse. It's the most expensive penthouse he and his people could find. It's in the heart of downtown, has a breathtaking 360-degree view that encompasses the entire city skyline and harbor, and has been the site of some of the most extravagant parties in living memory.

In some respects, tonight is no different than any other night at Sal's place. The world's most moneyed, famous, talented, ruthless, intelligent, and charismatic people—plus those who profit from them—have packed themselves into Sal's penthouse, and the beats are bumping.

And here comes Sal at the stroke of midnight: drunk, not a care in the world, with a crowd of shrieking underage girls trailing behind him.

But what Sal doesn't know is that this is the last party he'll ever host at his penthouse. After tonight, everything changes... one way or the other.
